

January 10, 2016
"Damaged"
Erik Hanson

Spend some time mulling over Romans 3:9-21. Consider reading the passages that are cross-referenced in the text. What do you think is the main point of this passage?

List what this text says about human thought, direction, speech and action. What does this list evoke for you?

Where do you currently resonate the most with the damage of sin and evil in your life?

Spend some time in reflection. How might you need to confess and repent of personal sin? How might you take hold of the grace of Jesus Christ in the midst of evil?

Take time to rejoice in this truth:

"But now apart from the law the righteousness of God has been made known, to which the Law and the Prophets testify. This righteousness is given through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe."

Romans 3:21-22