Think back to your own glory days (near or far). Did any of your teams or schools have cheers or slogans you can remember? Was there a potentially deeper meaning in it?

As you reread 2 Corinthians 9:6–15 consider each portion of the phrase:
Clear Eyes, Full Hearts, Can't Lose.

What is it that Paul wants us to see?
Where does the passage contain themes of having full hearts?
What promises are present that indicate we can't lose?

Describe a person you know that best exemplifies the life of generosity here in this passage. How do you suppose they became like that?

There's no way around it, this passage is also about money. Reflect on your attitude about your financial resources; where do you have a loose hold, and where do you grip (too) tightly?

Generosity Encouraged

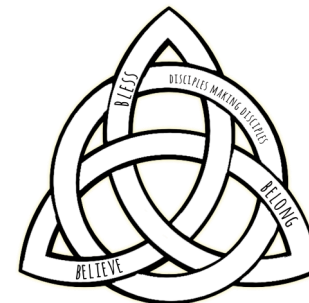

⁶ Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously. ⁷ Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. ⁸ And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work. ⁹ As it is written:

“They have freely scattered their gifts to the poor;
their righteousness endures forever.”

¹² This service that you perform is not only supplying the needs of the Lord's people but is also overflowing in many expressions of thanks to God. ¹³ Because of the service by which you have proved yourselves, others will praise God for the obedience that accompanies your confession of the gospel of Christ, and for your generosity in sharing with them and with everyone else. ¹⁴ And in their prayers for you their hearts will go out to you, because of the surpassing grace God has given you. ¹⁵ Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!
