Let Nothing Be Wasted

Re-read John 6:1–15

1. As you begin, acknowledge the various kinds of things that are hungers for you, perhaps even writing a list. Some will be holy, some less so. Some spiritual, some physical, some both.
2. Pray over your hungers, asking God for the ones that are the ones he wants to honor.

Read (yes again) the passage

3. Apply this passage to the hungers of your own life.
  - a. What is the basket of bread and fish that you bring?
  - b. What would be the result if God multiplied your starting material?
  - c. How would it be good for those around you?
  - d. How would it glorify the One who brought the multiplication?
4. Consider the reaction the crowd has in vv. 14–15. We call Jesus our King now, so what's wrong with their reaction? How can you guard against that danger as you pray for God to multiply your supply?

Scripture passage for January 29

<sup>16</sup> When evening came, his disciples went down to the lake, <sup>17</sup> where they got into a boat and set off across the lake for Capernaum. By now it was dark, and Jesus had not yet joined them. <sup>18</sup> A strong wind was blowing and the waters grew rough. <sup>19</sup> When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus approaching the boat, walking on the water; and they were frightened. <sup>20</sup> But he said to them, “It is I; don’t be afraid.” <sup>21</sup> Then they were willing to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the shore where they were heading.

<sup>22</sup> The next day the crowd that had stayed on the opposite shore of the lake realized that only one boat had been there, and that Jesus had not entered it with his disciples, but that they had gone away alone. <sup>23</sup> Then some boats from Tiberias landed near the place where the people had eaten the bread after the Lord had given thanks. <sup>24</sup> Once the crowd realized that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into the boats and went to Capernaum in search of Jesus.
